

Bear LeVangie

Since starting a path in Arboriculture 23 years ago, Bear shares a passion for trees with anyone who wants to learn. As an educator, Bear's simple approach of coaching versus telling allows others to learn at their own pace. A University of Montana alumni, Bear holds a B.S. from the school of Forestry in Natural Resource Conservation.

Bear's qualifications include: Women's Tree Climbing Workshop™ Owner, Co-Founder, Executive Director & Lead Instructor, ISA TRAQ Certified Arborist, CT Licensed Arborist, Certified Yoga Teacher- 250 Hr, American Red Cross Instructor, Utility Arborist experience, Arborist Rope splicer, Petzl PPE qualified inspector, MA Qualified Tree Warden, New England Chapter of ISA Past President, Licensed Pesticide applicator in MA, NY, and CT; Past New England ISA champion, Past Connecticut TCC champion, Past ITCC, Maine, New Hampshire, New York competitor.

